

SEEKING APPLICANTS FOR

Early Childhood Research Fellowships

The Buffett Early Childhood Institute at the University of Nebraska is accepting applications from advanced doctoral students representing diverse fields within the university system for 1-year fellowships worth up to $25,000.

The Buffett Early Childhood Institute Graduate Scholars program is awarding fellowships for up to three doctoral students for the 2022-23 year. The program seeks to support high-quality research that impacts the early years from diverse fields including health, education, social work, music, art, psychology, the neurosciences, and others. Multidisciplinary research and new methodologies are encouraged.

Full applications due

Thursday, March 31

Award recipients will be notified by
Thursday, June 30

Learn more at

buffettinstitute.nebraska.edu/graduate-scholars

Buffett
Early Childhood
Institute

at the University of Nebraska

The Buffett Early Childhood Institute at the University of Nebraska does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and/or political affiliation in its programs, activities, or employment.

004FLIRSCH0122

