

WIDENING THE CIRCLE OF SUPPORT

Connect children and families to community leaders, programs, facilities, and resources that will help children develop in positive ways

Remember that communities will only be as good as the support for young people within that community

Reach out to community leaders for strategies they use to successfully engage specific children in your classroom and care

Find intentional ways to be present in children's lives outside of school or child care

